Itinerary Feature: Visit Amish's Village, enjoy the tradition Amish Lunch and have fun in Hershey Chocolate World

We will head to Lancaster County located in Pennsylvania to begin our amazing trip with the Amish village. The Amish tribute originated at early 16th century and began to move to American Continent at mid-18th century due to the bloody religious persecution in Europe. The Pennsylvania Amish community in Lancaster County is the oldest and largest Amish community in the United States, numbering about 30,000. The population has more than doubled in size by the past 2 decades. Despite the development of the contemporary technologies in the 21st century, the Amish still live a rural way of life. They enjoy their simple and strict life and keep away from light, phone, and TV. Amish life is always remarkable in the trip with such a huge contrast with the modern social values. We will have a tradition Amish lunch here. Then we will travel to the North America's largest chocolate manufacturer - Hershey's Chocolate World. Here, you can take a small train to explore the whole process of chocolate making, and in the end you will have the chance to taste a piece of hot and fresh chocolate. Hershey's Chocolate World offers the sweetest adventures for everyone: no matter chocolate lovers or fun seekers, shopping-maniacs or history buffs.
