Day 3: New York City Tour

At a first glance, travelling around the entire of New York City seems like the mission impossible; however, our highly organized tour is especially designed for you: by visiting amounts of famous landmarks, you will learn more of the city's unique history, culture, and the core spirit of the New Yorkers! By stepping up to the Empire State Building Observation deck, guests could overlook the beautiful view of the central park and the entire of New York City. Empire State Building stood as the world's tallest building for nearly 40 years, and has been surpassed in late 1970. Its name is derived from the nickname of New York, the Empire State. Nowadays it is still the most famed landmark of the city. Also, Guests will take a sightseeing cruise tour on the Hudson River to enjoy the city view from a totally different angle, as well as take pictures with the backdrops of Statue of Liberty and Brooklyn Bridge. Furthermore, visit U.S.S INTREPID, the national heritage that costs $120 million, which is reopen for visitors. Concorde supersonic airliner and a variety of aircrafts will be all in the exhibition. In addition, wandering around the world's famous financial and securities trading center – Wall Street, taking pictures with Trinity Church, New York Stock Exchange and its signature sculpture Charging Bull, and visiting Times Square, Madame Tussauds - all of these will be made into our tour later. Of course, we can't miss the renowned Metropolitan Museum of Art. The Metropolitan Museum of Art is the largest art museum in the United States with collections of more than 2 million works of art. In the end of the day, our tour bus will pass by the Fifth Avenue, Rockefeller Center, Ground Zero and the new "Freedom tower"

- One World Trade Center ...(*The Madame Tussauds attraction in New York might be replaced by the one in Washington, D.C. considering the traffic.)

Day 4: New York – Philadelphia – Amish Village – Washington, D.C.

In the morning, the trip will start at Princeton University, a private Ivy League research university in Princeton, New Jersey. Founded in 1746 as the College of New Jersey, the institution moved to the current site 10 years later where it was renamed Princeton University in 1896. Guests will explore the campus, led by a student tour guide, to learn more about academics as well as the college culture.

Next, we will visit Philadelphia where known as the birthplace of American democracy. At the Independence National Historical Park, tour guide will arrange a free time for guests to walk around. Inside the Independence Hall, you will have a special moment of standing exactly where the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution were signed. You also won't miss the Liberty Bell which is recognized for its famous crack. Go beyond the iconic crack to learn how this State House bell was transformed into an extraordinary symbol. You will also see the Statue of Washington, Congress Hall, and many other great attractions. (According to the traffic, weather and time of the day, guests may have chance to visit One Liberty Observation Deck, which is the only observation deck in Philadelphia. Guests will stand on the shoulder of Philadelphia's 'giant', Benjamin Franklin, to see the historic city through a splendid 360-degree view).

Afterwards, we are going to Lancaster along the I-95, the main Interstate Highway on the East Coast of the United States. Here we will visit an Amish Village. Despite the development of the contemporary technologies in the 21st century, the Amish still live a rural way of life. They enjoy their simple and strict life and keep away from light, phone, and TV. Amish life is always remarkable in the trip with such a huge contrast with the modern social values. We will have chance to enjoy a special authentic Amish dinner when time allows. At night, we will check in the hotel in Maryland.

Hotel: Comfort Inn/Holiday Inn/Days Inn or equivalent

Day 5: Washington, D.C. – Hometown

We will head to Washington D.C. in the morning and firstly visit National Mall (also known as the Capitol Hill), which is between the Lincoln Memorial and the United States Capitol. The National Mall sees millions of visitors and protestors every year, but it has also played as host to many history-making events. This is where Martin Luther King, Jr. delivered his "I Have a Dream" speech to hundreds of thousands who marched on Washington. In the Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum, we will take a glance at the human aviation and space heritage as well as have a vision of space travel in the future through thousands of objects on display, including the 1903 Wright Flyer, Charles Lindbergh's Spirit of St. Louis, the Apollo 11 Command Module Columbia, and a lunar rock you can touch. Next, you surely don't want to miss the opportunity to take our exclusive DC cruise for sightseeing of the town along the Potomac River. Later we can take photos with backdrops of the White House and the U.S. Capitol due to the visit limitation for the public. The domed U.S. Capitol building is the nerve center of Washington, DC and the home to the U.S. Congress with 435 Representatives and 100 Senators. The White House, perhaps the most famous U.S. residence and certainly the most well-known address, is a must-see for any visitor to the nation’s capital. The historical house is the office to Presidents of the United States meanwhile the home to First Families. Continuing the trip, we will visit the Lincoln Memorial. This grand monument overlooks the Reflecting Pool, the Washington Monument and the U.S. Capitol. Inside, the 19-foot marble statue of the 16th president is flanked by inscriptions of his Second Inaugural Address and the famous Gettysburg Address. Additionally, we will stop at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial and the Korean War Memorial. The two monuments honor members of the U.S. armed forces who fought in the wars. Along the way, you will also see and pass by the Thomas Jefferson Memorial, WWII Memorial and more.

Upon completion of the tour, we will send you to each airport for flights home. See “Departure and Return Details” for more details.
