Day 1: Chicago – Lake of the Clouds

We will depart from Chicago in the morning to Lake of the Clouds which is located in Northern Michigan. The Lake of the Clouds is known for being first place where its maple leaves change color. It is not that easy to find a highland where you can overlook beautiful scenery and views of maple leaves in Michigan. Lake of the Clouds is surrounded by mountains, and the lake in the center reflects the surrounding colorful leaves just like a mirror. The Carp River flows along the forest. As the best attractive scenic site in the Michigan, Lake of Clouds is absolutely the paradise of photographers.

Hotel: American's Best Value Inn Wisconsin or equivalent

Day 2: Bond Falls – Orchard Farm - Chicago

We will depart from the hotel to the Bond Falls. The northern Michigan has thousands of lakes, but waterfall is very rare. The autumn of the Bond Falls is covered by maple leaves. Gurgling water and the colorful maple leaves have added poetic feelings to the early autumn of Michigan. There are some hiking trails right next to the falls for us to walk along. While we are away from the noise of cities, you are invited to breathe in fresh air and enjoy the nature. We will leave for the Orchard Farm of Wisconsin after the Bond Falls. An old couple inherited the farm along with the original concept of bringing fresh and organic food to everybody from their grandma. Enjoy the taste of harvest by picking apples on your own. You can also purchase organic apple juice and cider from the farm. While picking apple is not the only fun we could have in this farm, there are planted corns and pumpkins in the farm as well. For you to explore more about the farm, a corn maze after corn reaping will surprise you. It is popular among both the kids and adults. After a fun day, it's time for us to go back to Chicago.
