Day 2 Chicago City Tour

This tour will show you the best of Chicago in one day. You can see the United Center, home to the Chicago Bulls, where you can feel the glory of this star NBA team and see the statue of Michael Jordan. Visit the Buckingham Fountain, the world's largest artificial fountain. Take a walk in the Millennium Park, one of the best public spaces that you can find on earth. Go through Cloud Gate, the signature urban sculpture of Chicago. Take a break at the Navy Pier, former Navy training center, and now the most visited lakeshore park in Central United States. Visit Shedd Aquarium, the largest indoor aquarium in the world. Take a tour of the Chicago Theatre, the birthplace of Broadway musicals. Appreciate art works in the Art Institute of Chicago whose collection attracts 2 million visitors every year. Indulge yourself in the shopping heaven, the Magnificent Mile. Don't forget to ask the tour guide for the 10% off discount card at Bloomingdale's. And the historical Chicago Water Tower stands right next to the mall. To have the best view of this famous city, you have to go up to the 360 CHICAGO which soars 1,000 feet above Lake Michigan and the city's majestic skyline to offer the most breathtaking views of downtown Chicago, the lakefront and four neighboring states, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin. It boasts an enclosed, glass and steel moveable platform that holds up to eight visitors per cycle, which will be another new challenge to all extreme sport fans. Chicago is named the city of architecture. The corn-cob shaped Marina City buildings are famous around the world. Since the Chicago river goes through the city and is lined up with best architecture in town, we will take a river cruise to enjoy the beautiful urban landscape of Chicago.

Hotel: Comfort Inn O'hare or equivalent

Day 3 Chicago - Detroit - Frankenmuth

Our tour will start with Detroit, the capital of automobiles in the morning. We will stop at the headquarters of the General Motors Company. We will then visit Henry Ford Museum, named after the founder of the Ford Motor Company which is the US's second-largest carmaker. It is said that where there is a car, there is a Ford. The exhibitions not only portray the history of Ford but also the Industrial Revolution. The collection contains many rare exhibits including John F. Kennedy's presidential limousine, Abraham Lincoln's chair from Ford's Theatre, Thomas Edison's laboratory, the Wright Brothers' bicycle shop, and the Rosa Parks bus. We will then head to Frankenmuth, a German town in central America, to feel an entirely different culture. We will dine at a well-known local restaurant and brewery. Enjoy the world famous German sausage with authentic German beers. We will return to the hotel after this great dinner.

Hotel: Days Inn Grayling, Ramada Grayling Hotel and Conference Center or equivalent

Day 4 Frankenmuth- Mackinac Island

Our morning schedule includes a north bound drive to the lakeside city, Mackinaw. This city is famous for the magnificent scenic view. We will take the ferry boat to get to Mackinac Island. Almost all motor vehicles are banned on the island and is pollution free. The whole island is well preserved to remain the urban style of the 19th century. We will bypass a five mile long suspension bridge connecting the upper and the lower half of Michigan peninsula. We will also visit the Grand Hotel. Built in 1887, it's famous as the filming site for the 1980 film Somewhere in Time starring Christopher Reeve and Jane Seymour. Feel free to take a coffee in its porch (longest in the world), just as those notable visitors of the hotel, including five U.S. presidents, Russian prime minister Vladimir Putin, Russian president Dmitri Medvedev, inventor Thomas Edison, and author Mark Twain.

Day 5 Holland - Amish Farm - Chicago

We will first visit Holland in the morning. Holland was founded by Dutch Americans, and is in an area that has a large percentage of citizens of Dutch American heritage.. We will visit Windmill Island Gardens, an oasis at the edge of downtown Holland. It features a 250 year old working Dutch windmill "De Zwaan" (meaning graceful bird), surrounded by manicured gardens, dikes, canals and picnic areas. We will then visit an Amish community. The Amish are known for simple living, plain dress, and reluctance to adopt many conveniences of modern technology. With the sounds of passing carriages and people walking in ancient clothes, you will be brought back to the 18th century. Feel free pick one or two handcrafts, breathe in the exotic air preserved since the farming era and take a Amish style lunch. This visit will make you re-think about life. Our tours will return to Chicago in the afternoon.
