Day 1: Chicago–Detroit

In the morning, we will depart from Chicago to Detroit, where is also known as the Motor city. Ford is the second largest car manufacturer of the United States. An American saying states that where running cars indicates where Ford is. We will visit the Ford Factory if time and traffic allows. We will learn about the automobile production process, which will give us a more direct visual experience. Witnessing a car assembly is not seen by many people. More than thousand parts closely integrated and form the car, which we drive in our daily live. We will explore this with many of Ford's staff members. (We will visit Ford museum instead of Ford Factory if time do not allow or Ford Factory do not permit visiting.)

Hotel: Days Inn Youngstown or equivalent

Day 2: Corning Glass Museum – Watkins Glen

We will depart from the hotel to visit Corning Glass Museum directly in the morning. Corning Glass Museum is the world's biggest glass museum. It exhibits a wide range of various artificial glass products. We can also watch the glass blowing show to feel the magic of the ancient and ingenious technology. Visitors can shop in the souvenir shop of first floor, and it offers glass products and kitchen utensils. We will continue our tour to Watkins Glen, which is also known as Millennium Glen. It is the called the most beautiful place in the upstate New York. Walk along the Gorge trail to the end, we will see more than 20 distinctive waterfalls, such as Rainbow Falls, waterfall chains, infinite waterfalls, and so on. We will also pass through hanging stone bridge, circling tunnel, and other amazing scenic views. (Note: we will charge an extra $10/person for state park admission and bus parking.)

Hotel: RIT Inn or equivalent

Day 3: Letchworth State Park

We will visit Letchworth State Park, which is also known as East Grand Canyon. It is the most spectacular landscape area in the Eastern United States. Between canyon and cliffs where Genesee River flows through, you can feel the shocking roars of three waterfalls. We will have the opportunity to ride on rubber boat and experience thrilling White River Canyon rafting, which gives us a closer feel to the nature’s charm. This is also the best place for who likes hiking. (Rafting is subject to cancellation if the water level were too high on the day of visit. Guests will have more time visiting Letchworth State Park).

Hotel: Days Inn Erie or equivalent

Day 4 Cleveland—Chicago

Cleveland is known as world rock capital, and it is the largest city in the Lake Erie of Ohio. We will have a tour to the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum. The museum is design by Famous architect IM Pei. It is the first museum of rock music in the world, and it is also the pilgrimage’s rock hall for music fans. We will be arriving Chicago by the evening.
