Day 1: New York – York Wild Kingdom Zoo - Portland Head Light House - Hotel at Maine

We are leaving from Manhattan and Flushing, crossing the first two states in New England Region: Connecticut and Massachusetts, then we will head to the York's Wild Kingdom Zoo, where the largest animal parks and amusement is park in Maine. It shows the very rare white tigers in India, the world's largest rodent capybara, African zebras and lions, kangaroos in Australia, peacocks from India. There are more than 20 kinds of apes animals. We are free to feed the deer in Maine and small goat; we can ride the camel, too. It is ideal for children and parents to interact with animals and nature. (To take care and protect these exotic animals, the zoo has to maintain a stress less schedule for these endangered species, the Zoo reserve the right of final explanations.) By the end of the day, we will go to the fourth largest city in Maine - Portland, enjoy one of the oldest, most beautiful, the nation's highest photography light house: Portland Headlight house. The lighthouse was first authorized built by the first president of the United States; George Washington in 1787, which faces to the Atlantic Ocean, visitors can shoot from all angles of the lighthouse. And the lighthouse still is in use in the present.

{Remarks: The York's Wild kingdom only opens during May 26- September 23, 2018. Tour will visit Salem Witch Museum instead when York's Wild kingdom is close.

We arrive to the oldest town in Massachusetts, Salem which established in 1626, we are to visit the Salem Witch Museum, we learn the famous witches hall with a vivid demonstration of simple reproduction of the 17th-century Puritan life scenarios, it tells the stories with vivid language and superb performing arts, where we recall that the people's awareness of the disease and dependence on superstition. The museum offers free Chinese, Japanese, German, Russian, Italian, French, Spanish headphones. }
