Itinerary:

Day 1 New York-Princeton-Philadelphia-Baltimore-Washington DC

In the morning we will visit Princeton, NJ and the campus of Princeton University. Next, we will depart for Philadelphia, PA to visit National Independence Park, where we will see Congress Hall and the Liberty Bell. After, we will drive on to Baltimore, MD. We will spend the night near Washington, DC.

Princeton, NJ

Princeton University This illustrious university in central New Jersey is one of the oldest and most highly regarded institutions of higher learning in the entire United States of America. It has been associated with 35 Nobel Prize laureates.

Philadelphia

National Independence Park -This National Historical Park in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania serves as a way of preserving important Revolutionary War sites for future generations. Called "America's most historic square mile," this 55-acre park in the "Old City" district is not to be missed.

Congress Hall -When Philadelphia was the capital of the newly-formed United States of America, this building was home to the young Congress and all of its proceedings. Congress Hall stands right next to Independence Hall in Independence National Park.

Liberty Bell -The famously cracked Liberty Bell is a sign of American Independence and spirit. Located at Liberty Bell Center in Philadelphia, PA, this symbol of the American Revolution was crafted in 1752--more than 250 years ago.

Day 2 Washington DC-New York

Today we'll visit many of the most iconic landmarks and buildings in the nation's capital during our visit to Washington D.C., stopping at the Capitol Hill (we'll even be treated to an inside visit of its hallowed halls if tickets are available), Jefferson, Lincoln, Vietnam War, and Korean War Memorials. Guests will also have the chance to take a Boat Tour of the area.

US Capitol- The famous United States Capitol is the meeting place of the US Congress, and has been for more than 200 years. The building is famous for its elaborate dome and intricately designed, detailed columns.

Vietnam Veterans Memorial - in Washington, DC serves as a place to remember the American soldier who were lost or killed during the tumultuous Vietnam War. Originally controversial in design, the simple memorial has become a shrine for the American people.

Jefferson Memorial -is a memorial to the third president of the United States. The impressive building is neoclassical in design and has been standing since 1943. It sees more than two million visitors every year.

Korean War Veterans Memorial - commemorates those who served for the United States in the Korean War. It is located south of the Reflecting Pool at the National Mall. The simple memorial is triangular in shape with a circle at the top.

Lincoln Memorial -This iconic American monument honors the 16th president of the United States. Abraham Lincoln was president during the American Civil War, and is most famous for the Emancipation Proclamation that freed all of the slaves in the US.

Washington Monument -This iconic obelisk is a memorial to the commander-in-chief of the American revolutionary army and eventual the first president of the United States of America, George Washington. The massive stone structure began construction in 1848.

White House - is the official residence of the president of the United States and the place where most of the work is done. The facade of this neoclassical mansion is a global icon.

National Air and Space Museum -One of the Smithsonian Institute's museums in Washington, DC, the National Air and Space Museum chronicles the history of flight. From the Wright Brother to Buzz Aldrin, the exhibits at this museum explore all of humanity's air travels.

Potomac River Cruise- the Potomac River runs along Washington, DC, the capital city of the United States of America. Visitors to this famous locale can opt to see many of the area's most historic landmarks and memorials in a unique way.
