Day 1: New York City - Washington D.C

Arrive Washington D.C. around midday, the tour starts at the National Spy Museum; it's the place to learn the spy gadgets, strategy and their glamorous life. The rest of the afternoon, the guest will be free on their own to visit the following listed museums, or, free at leisure.

National Museum of Natural History: The Museum preserves artifacts from the earth's diverse cultures and collection of fossils and living creatures from the land and sea. Hope Diamond is one of the must-see items.

National Postal Museum: This museum is a "hidden" treasure, telling the history of the mail – from the Pony Express, to Air Mail and wartime mail. There are many great interactive exhibits for kids. Kids can create their own stamps which it can be emailed to you.

National Gallery of Art: A real national treasure of art. It houses the “Ginevra de’ Benci”, the only Da Vinci painting in America, and many other gems.

Later on, we will be visiting the Madame Tussands in Washington D.C. which is the only attraction you can get close to the “44 presidents” of US. We will have the chance to explore the inner structure of The White House, taking photographs with Oval Office desk aka The Resolute Desk. The great names will be memorized and honored forever.

After dinner, in the comfort of our own luxury coach, touring the splendor of Washington D.C. flooded in lights, from the U.S. Capital, Iwo Jima Memorial to Lincoln Memorial.

Reference hotel: Holiday Inn, MD or equivalent

Day 2: Washington D.C. - New York City

In the morning, the tour starts at the Embassy Row; begins north of the White House and extends out toward the Naval Observatory, it’s a prestige and beautiful neighborhood of 170 embassies with many classes/races/ages. Highlight of the day is National Zoo, checking at the zoo’s visitor center for feeding times, talks, and training sessions. Today, the zoo is home to more than 2,000 animals, many of which are endangered species, Bald Eagles, Sumatran Tigers, Komodo Dragons are the must-sees, but the giant pandas from China and their lovable cubs are the superstar.
