Day 1: Washington D.C. “White House-US Capitol—Air & Space Museum- Lincoln Memorial – International Spy Museum-Madame Tussauds DC”

Departure from New York, we will head towards Washington D.C., the capital of the United State.

First, we will visit National Air and Space Museum. The Air and Space Museum on the business street recorded the development of the aerospace industry. There are the Wright Brothers’ aircrafts in 1903, modern out space exploration, St. Louis’s Lindbergh's Spirit and the real Apollo 11 cockpit. The sightseeing of the trip also included the White House (outside view), America's seat of governing power. When we are standing in front of the Capitol Hill (outside view), the congress building in retro style will totally leap into our eyes. We will pass by Jefferson Memorial along with the Tidal Basin. And then we will visit Lincoln memorial, whose famous aphorisms was decorated on the wall, teaching tourists wisdom and experiences. Visit the International Spy Museum, the museum is for exploring the craft, practice, history, and contemporary role of espionage. It is the only public museum in the United States solely dedicated to espionage and the only one in the world to provide a global perspective on an all-but-invisible profession. It also features the largest collection of international espionage artifacts ever placed on public display. Many of these objects are being seen by the public for the first time.

If time permits, we will be visiting the Madame Tussands in Washington D.C. which is the only attraction you can get close to the “44 presidents” of US. We will have the chance to explore the inner structure of The White House, taking photographs with Oval Office desk aka The Resolute Desk. The great names will be memorized and honored forever.

Reference hotel: Red Roof Inn/ Days Inn, VA or similar

Day 2: Mount Vernon, VA – Back to NYC

We'll visit Mount Vernon, the place where George Washington rests in peace. We will be having the honor to have breakfast with our “president George Washington” and join the special event of President’s Day. He was the first president of US, commander of the Continental Army, president of the Constitutional Convention, and gentleman planter as well. We will honor this great man of the country with all respects.

After that, we will be heading back to New York City and will be arrive in the evening.
