Day 1 New York – Montreal

Passengers will be picked up in New York City in the early morning. We will drive to Montreal, QC, Canada, where we will arrive in the early afternoon. We will visit the St. Josephs Oratory on Mount Royal. St. Josephs Oratory of Mount Royal is a magnificent domed basilica in Montreal, Quebec that sits on the slopes of Mount Royal. The largest church in all of Canada, this national shrine can hold up to 10,000 people. Mount Royal -This hill in Montreal, Quebec is the namesake of the entire city and an important cultural, environmental, and historical landmark. The top of the so-called mountain is Mount Royal Park, one of the area's largest forested areas. After touring the city, we will have dinner downtown before checking in to the hotel for the night.

Hotel: Gouverneur Trois Riviere.QC or equivalent

Day 2 Montreal – Quebec City

In the morning, we will journey to Quebec City, QC for the Quebec Winter Carnival. It is the biggest winter carnival in the world. We will have the chance to see amazing ice sculptures, parades, concerts, and dogsled races. We will also pay a visit to the Ice Hotel. The Hotel de Glace just outside Quebec City is the only Ice Hotel in North America. This amazing architectural achievement is reconstructed every winter entirely out snow and ice. There is even an ice chapel in which weddings are hosted.

We will also visit Historic District of Old Quebec, particularly the royal castle La Citadelle, the European styled St. Louis Gate, and see the massive Chateau Frontenac perched nearby the Saint Lawrence River.

Hotel: Gouverneur Trois Riviere, QC or equivalent

Day 3 Quebec – Montreal – New York

In the morning, we will return to Montreal to visit the Olympic Stadium and Tower. Olympic Stadium and Tower The "tower" portion of this Stadium, which was originally constructed for the 1976 Olympics, is the tallest inclined tower in the world, stretching 574 feet into the air. (If Olympic Stadium and Tower close, we will visit Biodome of Quebec instead.)

This enormous building has a capacity of 78,322. On our way back to New York, we will stop at a duty-free wine shop. We should arrive back at the departure points at night.
