Day 2: Boston – Amish Village – Maryland

Leave for Washington, D.C., we are going to Lancaster along the I-95, the main Interstate Highway on the East Coast of the United States. After lunch, we will visit the Amish Village. Despite the development of the contemporary technologies in the 21st century, the Amish still live a rural way of life. They enjoy their simple and strict life and keep away from light, phone, and TV. Amish life is always remarkable in the trip with such a huge contrast with the modern social values. We will have chance to enjoy a special authentic Amish dinner when time allows. At night, we will check in the hotel in Maryland.

Day 3: Washington, D.C. – Philadelphia – New York

We will head to Washington D.C. in the morning and firstly visit Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum which is located on the National Mall (also known as the Capitol Hill). We will take a glance at the human aviation and space heritage as well as have a vision of space travel in the future through thousands of objects on display, including the 1903 Wright Flyer, Charles Lindbergh's Spirit of St. Louis, the Apollo 11 Command Module Columbia, and a lunar rock you can touch. Next, you surely don't want to miss the opportunity to take our exclusive DC cruise for sightseeing of the town along the Potomac River. Later we can take photos with backdrops of the White House and the U.S. Capitol due to the visit limitation for the public. The domed U.S. Capitol building is the nerve center of Washington, DC and the home to the U.S. Congress with 435 Representatives and 100 Senators. The White House, perhaps the most famous U.S. residence and certainly the most well-known address, is a must-see for any visitor to the nation's capital. The historical house is the office to Presidents of the United States meanwhile the home to First Families. Continuing the trip, we will visit the Lincoln Memorial. This grand monument overlooks the Reflecting Pool, the Washington Monument and the U.S. Capitol. Inside, the 19-foot marble statue of the 16th president is flanked by inscriptions of his Second Inaugural Address and the famous Gettysburg Address. Along the way, you will also see and pass by the Thomas Jefferson Memorial. Additionally, we will stop at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial and the Korean War Memorial. The two monuments honor members of the U.S. armed forces who fought in the wars.

We will visit Philadelphia where known as the birthplace of American democracy. At the Independence National Historical Park, tour guide will arrange a free time for guests to walk around. Inside the Independence Hall, you will have a special moment of standing exactly where the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution were signed. You also won't miss the Liberty Bell which is recognized for its famous crack. Go beyond the iconic crack to learn how this State House bell was transformed into an extraordinary symbol. You will also see the Statue of Washington, Congress Hall, and many other great attractions.

Day 4: New York City Tour

At a first glance, travelling around the entire of New York City seems like the mission impossible; however, our highly organized tour is especially designed for you: by visiting amounts of famous landmarks, you will learn more of the city's unique history, culture, and the core spirit of the New Yorkers! By stepping up to the Empire State Building Observatory, guests could overlook the beautiful view of the central park and the entire of New York City. Empire State Building stood as the world's tallest building for nearly 40 years, and has been surpassed in late 1970. Its name is derived from the nickname of New York, the Empire State. Nowadays it is still the most famed landmark of the city. Also, Guests will take a sightseeing cruise tour on the Hudson River to enjoy the city view from a totally different angle, as well as take pictures with the backdrops of Statue of Liberty and Brooklyn Bridge. Furthermore, visit U.S.S INTREPID, the national heritage that costs $120 million, which is reopen for visitors. Concorde supersonic airliner and a variety of aircrafts will be all in the exhibition. In addition, wandering around the world's famous financial and securities trading center – Wall Street, taking pictures with Trinity Church, New York Stock Exchange and its signature sculpture Charging Bull, and visiting Times Square, Madame Tussauds - all of these will be made into our tour later. Of course, we can't miss the renowned Metropolitan Museum of Art. The Metropolitan Museum of Art is the largest art museum in the United States with collections of more than 2 million works of art. In the end of the day, our tour bus will pass by the Fifth Avenue, Rockefeller Center, Ground Zero and the new "Freedom tower" - One World Trade Center ...

Day 5: Yale University – Rhode Island – Boston

Guests will visit the campus of Yale University located in New Haven in the morning! It is the third oldest college with Gothic buildings and student dormitory. You will enjoy a brief stop at the famous Sterling Memorial Library, which was designed by James Gamble Rogers as the centerpiece of Yale's Gothic Revival campus. (In case of tour areas closed due to school's schedule, campus tour will only take place in the public open area.) In the afternoon, we will directly head to The Breakers at Newport, Rhode Island. The 1895 four-story waterfront building was patterned after a Renaissance palace. It is the largest and grandest of the several historical Newport properties. Here, we can personally experience the glory of the American gold rush era of wealth. Many delicate artworks together with the decorations inside the building will help present the splendid days of Vanderbilt's family in the past.

Next, we will go to Plymouth to see Mayflower II and famous Plymouth Rock. Plymouth holds a place of great prominence in American history, folklore and culture, and is known as "America's Hometown". Being a full-size replica of the Mayflower which brought the Pilgrims to Plymouth in 1620, the Mayflower II is now serving as a museum about the Pilgrims' historic voyage. The Plymouth Rock became very famous and popular attraction after its identification as the supposed landing site of the Pilgrims. We will also visit a Plymouth village where New England was first established by the Pilgrims.

Later of the night, upon arrival in Boston, you will have the opportunity of enjoying Boston's most famous Lobster feast.

Hotel: Sheraton/DoubleTree/Radisson/Courtyard/Four Points/Wyndham/Holiday Inn or equivalent

Day 6: Boston – Hometown

The trip of the day will start in the city of Cambridge, MA where we will visit the Harvard University. Here, you will find Harvard's oldest campus and take pictures with the statue of John Harvard, known as the "Statue of Three Lies". Also, we will have a campus tour inside MIT to visit its main academic building and Kresge Auditorium. Another fun will begin as soon as you board the cruise ship and enjoy a spectacular view of the harbor. Later, go sightseeing in the Boston city. We will pass by the old Trinity Cathedral, the Hancock Building, the Boston Park, Prudential Center, and Boston Public Library along the way while overlooking the gold dome of the State House. Around the noon, we will arrive at old Quincy Market. Quincy Market is opportune for strolling through, or to get a taste of the historical ambience as well as to pick out souvenirs among the assorted merchants and artisans. The Market is also surrounded by dozens of restaurants for dining option with a variety of authentic cuisines, and Boston's Clam Chowder is always a good choice to satisfy your taste buds! After lunch, we will send you to the airport for flights home. See "Departure and Return Details" for more details.
