Day 2 Swamp - Smallest Post Office - Naples - Fort Myers

After breakfast, you will ride the bus on beautiful US-41 from Florida East seacoast to West passing through the famous Everglades swamp (Approximately two hours). This area is the largest subtropical wilderness park that has special mangrove ecosystems. Due to the special geographical location in marine estuaries, this place is a nature reserve for endangered species. In 1979, there has been listed as World Heritage in Danger by UNESCO. We will then visit Ochopee Post Office--- the smallest post office in the U.S 70 Miles away from Everglades. You will be able to send your postcard out from here or take photos for memories (about 30 minutes). Then arrive at the famous city in West Florida's seacoast- Naples which was named after the famous Italian city and kept the old classical Italian style architectures. You will then have about 2 hours to spend at The Fifth Avenue in Naples which the high end shopping district along with nice restaurants , antique shops and pearly white sand beach. Take a walk on the white beach, enjoy the warm soft sand and the beautiful sunset or try some fresh seafood at local restaurants.

Hotel: Wyndham Garden Fort Myers Beach OR equivalent (Breakfast included)

Day 3 Fort Myers - Edison and Ford Winter Estates-- Fort Lauderdale

Visit the Edison and Ford Winter Estates in the morning. When great inventor Thomas Alva Edison built his summer house beside the Caloosahatchee River in southwestern Florida, he also built the Chemical laboratory and botanical gardens, and then his good friend Henry Ford the founder of Ford Motor Company purchased the property next to him, the mansions and other properties became National Historic Landmark which opens to public nowadays. ($25/person) Visit the coast city Fort Lauderdale in the afternoon, 23 miles north from Miami, known as the "American Venice" for its expansive and intricate canal system. Spend time on Fort Lauderdale beach, one of the best 10 beaches in the United States.

Hotel: Howard Johnson / Holiday Inn OR equivalent (Breakfast included)

Day 4 Key West

Key West is a very famous tour spot in Miami, the annual International Film Festival is held here and many movies are shot here as well. Geographically, it is the southernmost of the United States territory.

Our tour will start from Miami, driving south wards for 170 miles, passing 32 islands and 42 bridges (including a magnificent 7-mile Bridge, which took 8 years to build and was claimed to be the 8th wonder of the world). Eventually we will reach our destination, the last island-- Key West.

We will show you where interstate highway 1 starts, and also take you to visit the former residence of famous writer Ernest Hemingway (additional charge $13/person) and select your Souvenirs at Duval Street and Marina Marketplace.

Hotel: Howard Johnson / Holiday Inn OR equivalent (Breakfast included)

Day 5 Everglades National Park—Downtown Miami--Hometown

Everglades National Park is the largest wetland reserve in the United States. We will start our trip with an airboat ride (additional charge $25/person) in the large swamp area, the perfect natural habitat of American alligators where you can experience amazingly nice views. After the boat ride, you will be presented with some unique wetland animals, where you will also see how a professional person catches an alligator. And then enjoy the beautiful Coral Gables, an area where all the structures are decorated by coral and shells. See the Biltmore Hotel, a landmark of Miami which built with an 18-hole golf course and the marvelous pools of Roman architecture. Other than those, you will be taken to a Cuba Town called Little Havana to see the Cuba Cigars workshop; have a taste of real Cuba coffee and experience the exotic South America life style.

Take a cruise tour of Miami Bay boarding from the Bay Marketplace to get the close views of those billionaire-owned private islands. See the second large financial district of the United States from distance. (Additional charge $28/person)

Visit the famous Miami Beach DECO district to see colorful Spanish architectures and former residence of Italian fashion designer Versace.
