Cooperstown:

Nearly 300,000 people a year make the pilgrimage to Cooperstown to pay homage to the heroes of the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum, but in the process, many also discover an unspoiled repository of America's heritage, rich in history, art, architecture and natural beauty. Exploring the baseball museum and the other gems of Cooperstown, like the Fenimore Art Museum, The Farmers' Museum and the Glimmerglass Opera, it is possible to find the core of America itself.

Farmers' Museum:

The Farmers' Museum collections number more than 23,000 items ranging from butter molds to the Cardiff Giant. The collection of hand planes and other wood working tools is especially significant. The Historic Village is an excellent example of a mid-19th-century farming community in Central New York State complete with an authentic Blacksmith Shop, Pharmacy, Printing Shop, Lawyers Office, Farm, Tavern, General Store and much more.

Baseball hall of Fame:

The game's memories live forever in Cooperstown. And once every spring, the legends who authored the National Pastime's greatest moments come together at the home of baseball for a weekend that has truly become a Classic.

The 2016 Hall of Fame Classic, presented by Ford Motor Company, will be held on Saturday, May 28 at Cooperstown's historic Doubleday Field. Now in its eighth year, the Classic will feature several Hall of Fame members as well as players representing all 30 major league teams in a seven-inning legends game at Doubleday Field. New in 2016, the Classic moves to 1 p.m. starting time in 2016, with the popular Home Run Derby starting at noon.

The Classic, fueled by assistance from Major League Baseball, will feature Hall of Famers Phil Niekro and Ozzie Smith as team captains and managers, with additional Hall of Famers-to be announced this spring – serving as coaches.

Fly Creek and Cider Mill:

Historic, water-powered cider mill on the banks of Fly Creek pressing fresh, sweet cider for 159 years minutes from Cooperstown, NY, home of the National Baseball Hall of Fame. Experience the Mill Marketplace's daily tasting of over 40 specialty foods including fresh mill-made fudge, Mill-aged, extra-sharp, cheddar cheese, salsa, apple wines and hard ciders. Tour the Mill and relax on the Mill pond observation deck with a farm-fresh lunch from the restaurant and bakery including ice cream delights and the famous cider float.

Destiny USA:

Unexpected. Magical. Wow. These are words used by real visitors to describe their Destiny USA experience.
