Itinerary

Day 1 New York- Philadelphia –Washington, D. C.

We will head for the National Independence Historical Park from New York in the morning. On the cobblestone streets, the Liberty Bell stands silently, which was restored not long ago. The silent bell reminds you to think of the history. When you get into the Independence Hall and congress Hall, where the forefathers of America passed the Declaration of the Independence and the Constitution, you will touch the modern American democracy. Then we will arrive in Washington, the capital of America. You can observe the Congress and the White House outside the building. The Air and Space Museum on the business street recorded the development of the aerospace industry. There are the Wright Brothers' aircrafts in 1903, modern out space exploration, St. Louis's Lindbergh's Spirit and the real Apollo 11 cockpit. We will pass by Jefferson Memorial along with the Tidal Basin. And then we will visit Lincoln memorial, whose famous aphorisms was decorated on the wall, teaching tourists wisdom and experiences. You can also tribute the heroes sacrificed in the Vietnam War and the Korean War. The Vietnam War monument in memory of the dead martyrs was designed by Linying, simple and moving. The Korean War monument describes the intense and miserable battles.

If time permits, we will be visiting the Madame Tussands in Washington D.C. which is the only attraction you can get close to the “44 presidents” of US. We will have the chance to explore the inner structure of The White House, taking photographs with Oval Office desk aka The Resolute Desk. The great names will be memorized and honored forever. We will get back to the hotel after dinner.
