Day 2: Hotel- South of the Border (Carolina)-Savannah, Georgia

Continuing our tour down to the South on day 2, we will pass through South of the Border and Savannah, Georgia.

South of the Border is a rest stop and roadside attraction between Dillon, South Carolina and Rowland, North Carolina. Its Mexican themed kitsch location has served as a rest stop for tourist traveling to and from Florida since 1950s. Its mascot is Pedro, an extravagantly stereotypical Mexican bandito.

Savannah is the oldest city in the State of Georgia. Its unique architecture and historic buildings have attracted millions of visitors. Its beautiful scenery also can be seen from the movie “Forest Gump”. Its favorite stories involve the life of Florence Martus, who was known by Savannahinas and sailors of the sea as “the Waving Girl”. Florence Martus took it upon herself to be the unofficial greeter of all ships that entered and left the Port of Savannah.
