From New York to the largest South Korean farmers' markets in America, you can enjoy the fresh air and beautiful view. Also, you can taste the fresh hand pick pear by yourself, and bring them back to your home. (The farm will charge the fruit per pound)

We will leave One Liberty Observation for the Reading Terminal Market for lunch. You cannot visit Philly and miss out on visiting the Reading Terminal Market. The variety of food, delis and restaurants in this one spot is overwhelming. If you prefer Chinese Food for lunch, China town is just around the corner.

The last but not the least, we will go to visit the Museum of Philadelphia. Take Photos with Rocky Step and Washington Monument Fountain. It was originally chartered in 1876 for the Centennial Exposition. The museum administers collections containing over 240,000 objects including major holding s of European, American and Asian origin. <Vase with twelve Sunflowers> by Van Gogh, <The Bathers> by Paul Cézanne.
