Departure from New York in the morning, we will head to Philadelphia.

First of all, we will visit One Liberty Observation Deck, which is the only observation deck in Philadelphia. Guests will stand on the shoulder of Philadelphia's 'giant', Benjamin Franklin, to see the historic city through a splendid 360-degree view. We can see William Penn's statue standing on the top of city hall which reminds us about the Quaker's creed in this city: the city of brotherly love.

We will leave One Liberty Observation for the Reading Terminal Market for lunch. You cannot visit Philly and miss out on visiting the Reading Terminal Market. The variety of food, delis and restaurants in this one spot is overwhelming. If you prefer Chinese Food for lunch, China town is just around the corner.

And then we will go for the City Hall of Philadelphia (outside view). Right next to it would be the "Love" sculpture, designed by Robert Indiana, was first placed in the plaza in 1976 as part of the United States' Bicentennial celebration. It was removed in 1978, but the sculpture was missed, and the chairman of Philadelphia Art Commission, Fitz Eugene Dixon Jr., bought the sculpture and permanently placed it in the plaza, in 1978.

The last but not the least, we will go to visit the Museum of Philadelphia. Take Photos with Rocky Step and Washington Monument Fountain. It was originally chartered in 1876 for the Centennial Exposition. The museum administers collections containing over 240,000 objects including major holdings of European, American and Asian origin. <Vase with twelve Sunflowers> by Van Gogh, <The Bathers> by Paul Cézanne.

After the In-depth tour of Philadelphia, we will head back to New York City.
