Itinerary

Day 1

Philadelphia –Newport, RI

Hotel: Regency Inn & Suites north Dartmouth or equivalent

In the morning, we head north for Martha's Vineyard. On the way we will visit the most interactive marine research aquarium: Mystic Aquarium, where exhibits the Titanic underground of 12,450 feet deep in The Atlantic Ocean, it shows the story of the sinking and steels from the sea, we can also see the four aged up to 30 years old cute Beluga Whale, visitors can take pictures with them face to face; the aquarium also has more than 50 kinds of fluorescent jellyfish; visitors can also watch four over 10-year-old California sea lion, touching the blue lobster and rays fishes.

In the afternoon, we will arrive New Port, RI. Where the Breakers Mansion located. Through the years Newport of Rhode Island has made a name as a summer playground of billionaires and as the yachting capital of the world. Explore the late 1800s and early 1900s of American history and European-influenced architecture at one of Newport's famed "summer cottages", The Breakers, an 1895 mansion patterned after a Renaissance palace. The Breakers mansion is not just one of the most famous, but also the largest and grandest of the several historical Newport villas that dot the ritzy coastline. The four-story building is located on 14 acres of waterfront property and consisted by 70 rooms. The grand interior decorations together with many local stories will help guests review the Vanderbilt family's splendid past days.

Day 2 Plymouth – Martha's Vineyard

Hotel: Regency Inn & Suites north Dartmouth or equivalent

We will Visit the Plimoth Plantation in the morning, which is a recreation of the small farming town built by English colonists. The people you will meet here talk of the past, Step into a traditional house Surrounded by soft furs, flickering firelight, and artfully woven bulrush mats, learn about traditional Wampanoag family life as well as the arrival of the English from an Indigenous point of view. Walk around outside and enjoy the scent of stew as it simmers over an aromatic wood fire. Take this unique opportunity to explore the perspectives of the Indigenous Wampanoag who have lived on this land for hundreds of generations.

And then we will take a 45-minute ferry to Martha's Vineyard, an ideal getaway for relaxing! Each of the Island's six towns provides access to spectacular beaches and outdoor activities while at the same time offering an enjoyable selection of shops, restaurants, and other attractions. We will visit Aquinnah Cliffs – formerly known as Gay Head. Rising 150 feet above the ocean, these spectacular clay cliffs have the most breathtaking view on the entire island. From this vista, you can see the Elizabeth Islands, Norman Island, Cape Cod, and a sweeping view of Vineyard Sound. It has been a secret haven of the rich and famous for decades. Thanks to frequent visitors like President Barack Obama who spends summer vacation here every year, the "Hollywood East" reputation is going strong with growing numerous tourists. Following we will visit Edgartown - the Island's first colonial settlement, and it has been the county seat since 1642. The stately white Greek revival houses built by the whaling captains have been carefully maintained. They make the town a museum-piece community, a seaport village preserved from the early 19th century.

Day 3 Essex Town -Philadelphia

In the morning, we will visit Essex and take Steam Train and Riverboat ride. The Essex Steam Train and Riverboat ride is a fun-filled trip for visitors of all ages. The steam locomotive pulls vintage coaches at 20 mph through the quintessential New England towns of Deep River and Chester. The picturesque countryside includes pristine meadows, a quaint farm, a millpond with waterfall, and trestles and bridges over rivers and creeks. At Deep River Landing, passengers will get on board of a riverboat, cruising along the Connecticut River. The deep water, coves, inlets, marshes, wildlife, and rocky shoreline are all at once, simply breathtaking! Impressive historic sights also include Gillette Castle, Goodspeed Opera House, and the Haddam Swing Bridge. Lunch can be on the boat. And after that, we travel back Philadelphia.
