Itinerary highlight: Monhonk Mountain House

The Monhonk Mountain House is a historic American resort hotel located on the Shawangunk Ridge in Ulster County, it is located in the town of New Paltz, where is just beyond the southern border of the Catskill Mountains on the Western side of the Hudson river. The Monhonk Mountain House has received dozens of awards from magazines and news outlets, we would enjoy the lovely lunch in the house, then we walking along the path around the lake, so relaxing and comfortable. When the foliage turns into yellow and red, the foliage view is the best sightseeing in the fall season.
