Itinerary

Day 1: Olympia, WA – Portland

Visit Olympia, the capital city of the State of Washington, to see the state house. Travel north to Columbia River Gorge in 40 miles to the east of Portland. The Columbia River is the 4th largest river by volume in the nation, flows inside the Rocky Mountains. It covers and runs for 1000 miles along the border of two states, Oregon and Washington. The magnificent view of the valley includes Multnomah, a famous 620 feet falls. Next stop is Portland where we will visit the International Rose Test Garden, which was built in 1917 for the worldwide rose experiment. You can always see new types of roses growing here. Later we will visit The Grotto. With 62-acre green space of fir trees, colorful rhododendrons and other native plants, The Grotto is an inviting destination for all as an internationally-renowned Catholic shrine and botanical garden. A circular path which is called Stations of the Cross near the parking area leads visitors to the 14 bronze bas-relief sculptures. The heart of the shrine is Our Lady's Grotto, a rock cave carved into the base of a 110-foot cliff.

Hotel: Days Inn / Quality Inn or equivalent

Day 2: Florence Beach – Sea Lion Caves (Summer: 4/1-10/31) / Oregon Garden —Woodburn Outlet (Winter: 11/1-3/31)

(Summer Schedule) After breakfast, we will drive along the West Coastline where you can enjoy the view of Pacific Ocean and the coastline. Florence Beach has been called the “North American Sahara Desert”. You can take a special sand buggy ride within the dunes of the beach. Then visit the Sea Lion Cave which was eroded by the waves and the formation began about 25 million years ago. Sea Lion Caves is America's largest sea cave and the year-round home of the Steller sea lion, but sea lions are not always in the Cave. They are wild animals so these protected animals come and go as they please, as is their nature. Also you can learn more of their nature and habitats.

(Winter Schedule) After Breakfast, we’ll go to Oregon Garden, which contains more than 20 different gardens inside. The beautiful gardens are worth to visit. Later on, we will go to Woodburn Outlet, It is the largest outlets in Oregon with more than 100 named brands. Tips: Oregon State is free of sales tax! Enjoy shopping! Enjoy saving!
