Day 2 Galveston

Enjoy your breakfast before we start the tour!

- First of all, we will visit the Ocean Star Offshore Drilling Rig & Museum. The Ocean Star was built in 1969 in Beaumont, Texas by Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation for the Ocean Drilling and Exploration Company fleet. She worked in the Gulf of Mexico throughout the Texas and Louisiana Gulf Coast and drilled approximately 200 wells during her active life. The Offshore Drilling takes visitors on a behind the scenes journey of the technical process of extracting oil and gas offshore, and the Drill Floor is directly underneath the derrick and is where the work of drilling a hole is done.

- Next we will visit the Bishop's Palace, also known as Gresham's Castle. The house was built between 1887 and 1893 by Galveston architect Nicholas J. Clayton for lawyer and politician Walter Gresham, his wife Josephine, and their nine children. In 1923 the Roman Catholic Diocese of Galveston purchased the house, and, situated across the street from the Sacred Heart Church, it served as the residence for Bishop.
- Then we will go to the Galveston Island Historic Pleasure Pier. Featuring waterfront fun and entertainment like no other Gulf Coast destination. Featured attractions are Iron Shark, Sky Shooter, Texas Star Flyer, Galaxy Wheel, Bubba Gump Shrimp etc.

Hotel: Crowne Plaza Near Sugar Land or equivalent

Day 3 Houston-New Orleans

Enjoy your breakfast before we start the tour!

- When we reach Oak Alley Plantation, a U.S. National Historic Landmark located at the west suburban of New Orleans, our attention, right away, would be attracted to the astonishing beauty that the plantation presents. Visitors may even feel that they were taken into the scene of "Gone with Wind". The master's big house is contrasting with the slave quarter nearby. Two rows of 300-years-old oak trees are not only concealing the amazing quarter-mile-long garden road, but also the bitterness of the south had borne after Civil War. The natural environment of New Orleans is as distinctive as its local culture.
- We will also have a Swamp Tour, a fun adventurous yet safe boat ride that showcases the unique eco system of New Orleans region. You'll have opportunities to see alligators, snakes, turtles, egrets, herons, ibis and many other species as well as many strange looking plants living in the swamp. It is like entering a land of unknown. The natural disaster remains of Hurricane Katrina of ten years ago can still be seen. It is so fascinating of the untouched swamp wildness of the pristine beauty.
- Next we will head to our hotel for the night located at French Quarter district in New Orleans. Guests can enjoy the rest of your day exploring the area. You can find a live jazz performance bar around Bourbon Street; enjoy a cup of coffee and Beignets at the famous Café De Monde; or have some Cajun crawfish and fresh oyster for dinner. Visiting Jackson Square seems like a good idea too. It was built to commemorate General Andrew Jackson. Many festivals are going on there simultaneously. The night is long, and the nightlife is on.

Hotel: Courtyard by Marriott French Quarter/Hotel 504 French Quarter or equivalent

Day 4 New Orleans-Houston

Enjoy your breakfast before we start the tour!

- First thing in the morning we are going to visit the National World War II Museum, formerly known as the D-Day Museum, a military history museum emphasizes the American experience in World War II.
- Around noon we will take you to the Mississippi Steamed Jazz Cruise. Your two-hour cruise from the heart of the French Quarter shows you why the city was founded on the beautiful crescent of the lower Mississippi River. New Orleans is an important historical city in South US and one of the major ports, also well-known as the birthplace of jazz. The live Jazz performance on the steamboat will make you an unforgettable trip.

Hotel: Crowne Plaza Near Sugar Land or equivalent

Day 5 Houston NASA Tour

Enjoy your breakfast before we start the tour!

- We will make our first stop to Battleship Texas, took part in some of the most significant naval battles of the 20th century during both world wars. Now docked along the Houston Ship Channel, she serves as a memorial to those turbulent times.
- Then go for San Jacinto Monument, the world's tallest masonry column. It commemorates the decisive battle of the Texas Revolution. Led by General Sam Houston, the Texan Army engaged and defeated General Antonio López de Santa Anna's Mexican army in a fight that lasted just 18 minutes. The monument is 567 feet tall and 17 feet higher than Washington Monument in DC, topped with a Lone Star – the symbol of Texas.
- The most important part of the day is NASA Space Center. We will go to the Space Center for Tram tour to Rocket Park, see the control center, astronaut training center, space shuttle. The center features more than 400 space artifacts, permanent and traveling exhibits, attractions and theaters related to the exciting future and remarkable past of America's human space-flight program.

Enjoy your breakfast before we start the tour!

- We will follow the path of history to George W Bush Presidential Library. The mission of the George Bush Presidential Library and Museum is to preserve and make available for research the official records, personal papers, and artifacts of President George H.W. Bush, to support democracy, promote civic education, and increase historical understanding of U.S. national experience through the life and times of George Bush.
- Then we will head to Fort Worth, visit The Historic Stockyard. Once home to cowboys, cattlemen and outlaws, today the Stockyards National Historic District is one of the most popular attractions in Texas. Day and night, visitors come to the Stockyards to get a taste of the true American West. Our guide will arrange a free time for guests to walk around.
- After lunch, we will go for the Sixth Floor Museum at Dealey Plaza. The museum examines the life, times, death, and legacy of President John F. Kennedy, and is located at the very spot from which Lee Harvey Oswald, according to four government investigations, shot and killed the President on November 22, 1963.
- Furthermore, the Dallas World Aquarium is a must-see! By stepping in you will see the artificial reproduction of the Orinoco Rainforest. The rainforest is an aviary, with birds such as scarlet ibis and toucans flying freely. While winding their way through the rainforest, visitors see the only public display of three-toed sloths and Antillean manatees in the United States, plus animals such as electric eels, caecilians, tamarins, poison dart frogs, Orinoco crocodiles, and vampire bats.
- Besides, we will get to the Arts District which is a performing and visual arts district in Downtown Dallas.
- The last but not the least, you don't want to miss the opportunity to step up to the most recognizable landmark in Dallas: Reunion Tower. You will enjoy the city view on the observation deck.

Along the way, you will see and pass by the Giant Eyeball, Pioneer Plaza. AA Center of "Mavericks".
