Day 1: Houston-Sundance Square-Water Gardens-Cowboy Hall of Fame-Texas Steak

We will depart in the morning and start the tour! In the morning, we will visit Sundance Square. Known as the “Busiest downtown in United States, Sundance Square is a dazzling, 35-block development filled with boutiques, restaurants, night spots, and art galleries, making it one of the finest entertainment and shopping districts in the Southwest. Sundance Square offers the widest range of entertainment options in Fort Worth.

Our next stop will be Water Gardens. The Fort Worth Water Gardens, built in 1974, is frequently billed as a "cooling oasis in the concrete jungle" of downtown. Designed by Phillip Johnson (Amon Carter Museum of American Art), the Water Gardens is an architectural and engineering marvel to be enjoyed any time of the year. Visitors can experience a variety of water features as they wander through this relaxing urban plaza.

Fort Worth is where the West begins, and nothing embodies Western heritage better than the Fort Worth Stockyards National Historic District. From the original brick walkways to the wooden corrals, every inch of the Stockyards tells the true history of Texas's famous livestock industry.

Next, we will visit Cowboy Hall of Fame. The Texas Cowboy Hall of Fame honors those individuals who have shown excellence in competition, business and support of rodeo and western lifestyle in Texas. Texas Cowboy Hall of Fame is one of the horse and mule barns in the Fort Worth Stockyards National Historic District. Originally built in 1888, these barns housed over 3,000 horses and mules.

Take a good bite of authentic Texas Steak at Stockyards National Historic District. After dinner, the excitement and action of rodeo performances await your arrival. Best of the West Ranch Rodeo – Authentic cowboys competing in ranch-themed events. Each performance offers spectators a unique opportunity to watch the toughest cowboys and cowgirls from all over the nation compete for the respective event titles.

Hotel: Holiday Inn Garland or equivalent

Day 2: Dallas-Presidential Library-Sixth Floor Museum-Arts District-Reunion Tower

We will depart in the morning and start the tour! We will follow the path of history to George W Bush Presidential Library. The mission of the George Bush Presidential Library and Museum is to preserve and make available for research the official records, personal papers, and artifacts of President George H.W. Bush, to support democracy, promote civic education, and increase historical understanding of U.S. national experience through the life and times of George Bush.

After lunch, we will go for the Sixth Floor Museum at Dealey Plaza. The museum examines the life, times, death, and legacy of President John F. Kennedy, and is located at the very spot from which Lee Harvey Oswald, according to four government investigations, shot and killed the President on November 22, 1963.

Besides, we will get to the Arts District which is a performing and visual arts district in Downtown Dallas.

The last but not the least, you don't want to miss the opportunity to step up to the most recognizable landmark in Dallas: Reunion Tower. You will enjoy the city view on the observation deck.

Along the way, you will see and pass by the Giant Eyeball, Pioneer Plaza. AA Center of "Mavericks".
